

We need to keep the NO Call list just as is and not allow companies to solicit to us via the phone. If we wanted to talk to them we would call them. It's somethign that needs to allow us to have some privacy and if it changes or threatens then it is not allowing us to have any privacy at all. If your sitting at home you don't want peopel calling you in the middle of your family dinner.